SOUTH AFRICA-ANGOLA: Military Developments

[REDACTED] South African forces have bombed the Angolan towns of Cuvelai and Ediva. The SA-9 missiles at Cuvelai were hit, but the SA-8 missiles at Ediva appear undamaged. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Earlier this week the South Africans shelled and bombed the Angolan military camp at Cahama.//

[REDACTED] //Angola's claims that South Africa also has attacked the towns of Mulondo, Kassinga, and Caiundo have not yet been confirmed, but they probably are true. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Their presence suggests that the South Africans are operating considerably beyond their buffer zone in southern Angola. [REDACTED]
